IOC Domain: duolingo-team[.]com

IOC IP: 156[.]146[.]55[.]242

Subject: Here's a Concept We Love for You

Sender: duolingo-pr@sfr.fr

Reply to: collab@duolingo-team.com

Return-Path: duolingo-pr@sfr.fr

ID: mFAqKXdei2iByhUAe4cVtA

Investigation:

On 2025-07-31 08:15:51AM UTC an incoming email was received by inquiry@mydfir.com which passed DKIM and SPF checks, it was not marked as SPAM. The domain of duolingo-team[.]com was registered on 2025-07-10, does not have a website which makes it suspicious for a legit brand collaboration. This is further supported by the mismatch between the return address and reply to. The sender domain sfr.fr is registered in 1997 and belongs to an ISP based in France. The email is likely sent by an account (duolingo-pr) registered in sfr mailing service. Analyzing the content body of the email we see non-formal style of writing which suggests broader phishing campaign. We see a generic greeting "Hello, inquiry", which is another evidence of campaign rather than personally tailored email. No attachments or links were found inside the email body.

Verdict: Brand impersonating email, possibly part of a large phishing campaign.

Recommendations:

1. Perform a 7 day search on your environment for any emails received from the above domains

2. Check server logs using the email ID to determine if any other users received this email

3. Consider flagging this account to SFR.FR

4. Consider blocking duolingo-team[.]com domain.
